

PRIEST IN ACCIDENT

FATHER O'NEILL'S CAR STRUCK BY PACIFIC ELECTRIC TRAIN

Street car accidents are becoming all too numerous in Glendale. Father James S. O'Neill was the victim Wednesday afternoon and he is very fortunate that he is alive to tell how it happened. Father O'Neill was driving north on Everett street about four o'clock. When about to cross Broadway he saw the flash of a red car and put on the brakes at once, but Broadway is so narrow at that point that he was on the track before he could stop. The car struck the Ford and tossed it to the sidewalk like a rubber ball. It is well known that a Ford roadster is not very spacious and the Reverend Father being of goodly proportions he knew it was useless to try to extricate himself from the machine, so he kept his seat and fortunately for him the Ford "lit on its feet," although badly smashed. Elder Marvin, who witnessed the accident, ran to assist Father O'Neill and states that he expected to find him dead.

Father O'Neill says the fender of the car was up. Motorman Kelley in charge of the car expressed the deepest regret that the accident had occurred, saying it was his last day on the road as he leaves soon to join the army. That made it all right with Father O'Neill, who wished the young man good luck.

The red car was coming up Broadway at a good rate of speed. The view of Broadway is obstructed at that point and the street is so narrow that when a car emerges from the cross street onto Broadway it is on the track. These facts all contributed to this accident. All concerned are extremely grateful it was no worse.

THAT SPECIAL CHARTER

EXECUTIVE BOARD OF CHAMBER OF COMMERCE DISCUSS SPECIAL CITY CHARTER

The executive board of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce met in the Chamber of Commerce rooms at 1010 West Broadway Wednesday evening, presumably for the purpose of devising ways and means of assisting in the election of fifteen freeholders at an election to be held July 9, it being the duty of these freeholders after their election to prepare a special charter for the City of Glendale, and offer the same for adoption.

A. T. Cowan, president of the Chamber, presided. Roy L. Kent was elected secretary.

The following communication was read:

Office of City Clerk
City of Glendale, California,
June 4th, 1918.

Mr. A. T. Cowan,
Pres. Chamber of Commerce,
Glendale, Cal.

Dear Mr. Cowan:

At a regular meeting of the Board of Trustees of the City of Glendale, May 23d, 1918, a resolution was adopted on motion of Trustee Shaw, "That the Chamber of Commerce be requested to take up the matter of selecting the names of fifteen freeholders to be put upon a ticket as constituting a Charter Committee, to be voted upon at the election of July 9th next."

Very Truly Yours,

J. C. SHERER,
City Clerk.

After considerable discussion a motion prevailed that this is not the proper time to bring up the question of adopting a special charter for the City of Glendale, and the members of the executive board present decided to meet the City Trustees at their regular meeting Thursday evening, June 6, for the purpose of gaining additional information as to why the question should come up at this time.

The members of the board of city trustees who are calling the election of freeholders will undoubtedly have sufficient cause for their acts, and will very likely give full explanation at the meeting of the board this evening. All persons interested in the city's welfare should be present at the meeting this evening.

The executive board of the Chamber also adopted resolutions disapproving the charging of telephone toll between the Glendale and Los Angeles exchanges. The resolution will be presented to the board of city trustees this evening.

WEATHER FORECAST—Fair to night and Friday, cloudy in the morning, light westerly winds.

REAL SOLDIERS

BOYS OF THE 143RD ARTILLERY PASS THROUGH GLENDALE

They came, they saw, they conquered all hearts, the boys of the 143rd Artillery.

Early in the forenoon rumors began to circulate that the soldiers would pass through the city en route for their camping place in the Arroyo Seco, on their way to Camp Kearny. After that every citizen and every child was on the qui vive to know when and where. Scouting small boys scurried hither and yon, importantly circulating reports that the soldiers would come this way or that, telephone wires were kept hot with inquiries, and patient crowds began to gather at the civic center by three o'clock, determined not to miss the sight of these army men, some of them from our own homes. Before long, advance guards sent to spy out the land "blaze a trail," so to speak, began to arrive on dapper, quick-stepping western horses. The first was about an hour in advance of the main body of the troops. Ten minutes later he was relieved by another rider and then moved on to an advanced post. One of these ten-minute men was Sidney Simon, who was greeted with enthusiasm by his friends.

But the small boys did not need previous acquaintance nor introductions. As each rider drew rein at his post, the little fellows, scarce tall enough to reach to the belly of the impatient steed, gathered in adoring circles around horse and rider, plying their hero with questions which he had to lean far down to answer.

When at last it became known that the approach to Brand boulevard would be made by Colorado street, the crowd made a grand rush for that corner and spent itself in cheers as the escorting automobile bearing the mayor and chief of police appeared, followed by the mounted officers and color bearer, the band on foot, the gun wagons, ambulance corps, camp wagons, water wagons, etc. But the crowd was singularly apathetic in manifesting the enthusiasm which had called it forth. There was some hand-clapping but for the most part they were content to be mere spectators without reciprocity.

As for the soldiers, they had been surfeited with attentions and applause and were longing to get to camp. They had put in a strenuous morning of drills and evolutions at Universal City before the movie cameras and showed some trace of fatigue under the grime of travel, which curiously transformed some of them, though possibly part of their facial smudges were left-over make-up for the screen.

But they were a splendid, vigorous body of men, western men, and therefore ours in a special sense. The horses looked western, too, and they were in as fine condition as the men. The camouflage of the wagon wheels, curiously splashed with green, yellow, brown and gray in swirling curves, awoke interested comment.

Another object of interest was a young woman in a khaki-colored cloth uniform with cadet cap of the same color, bearing the letters U. S. A. The soldiers greeted her as they passed and she apparently inspected the line carefully, standing at informal attention on the curb, but when interrogated refused to give information concerning her office, saying it was a new branch of the service not yet announced. She was a pretty young woman and the uniform, consisting of skirt and blouse with cape attachment, was very becoming.

The cavalcade, 600 strong, turned north from Colorado on Brand, turned again to the east on Broadway, which was followed to Glendale avenue, then south to Colorado. It was soon over, this passage of soldiers, but it was worth seeing and will linger in our memories as we read the record of war. When brave deeds are performed by trains of artillery on the battle front, we will think of these boys and visualize the men who are saving their country and the world in that carnage.

VOTE OF THANKS

Resolved, that we, as officers and members of the Glendale Red Cross Chapter, extend to A. T. Cowan of the Glendale News a vote of thanks that is "all wool and a yard wide" for the generous use of his clean, valuable, up-to-date paper, in publishing every word and column that could in any way benefit and develop the Red Cross activities. His paper should be in every household in our city and the entire community should patronize a publisher so unselfish and patriotic.

J. H. BRALY,
Chairman Glendale Chapter American Red Cross, and Members of the Executive Committee.

AMERICAN CASUALTY LIGHT

SEVEN MEN WERE KILLED IN ACTION AND THIRTEEN SEVERELY WOUNDED

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, June 6.—Today's casualty list numbers 7 killed in action, including William F. Hatcher of Oxnard, Cal., three dead from wounds, four dead from disease, three deaths from accident. Thirteen were severely wounded and three slightly; one missing.

EUROPE'S BLOODIEST SUMMER

RESUMPTION OF BATTLE BETWEEN THE AISNE AND THE MARNE EXPECTED TO OPEN WITH REDOUBLED FURY

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

PARIS, June 6.—The Allied troops assumed the offensive on the Marne last night and the Germans were driven back at two points on the western front, losing 150 prisoners.

The Germans who were endeavoring to cross the Oise river were forced back. Artillery action was heavy at Longpont and Neuilly-la-Boterie and Rheims.

American machine gunners and French artillery forces still hold the south bank of the Marne between Chateau-Thierry and Joulgonne. Despite the stabilization of the battle line on the Marne, the Germans do not indicate any early intention of entrenching and resting on their present line. They may resume the fight with increased intensity at any time.

The Germans are bringing up artillery and relieving decimated divisions, while the Allies are steadily strengthening their lines. The enemy finds the way hard and is learning that he can not expect to break through the line without heavy artillery, which he has not yet been able to bring up.

Within a few days the battle between the Aisne and the Marne must be expected to reopen in a more violent form than ever before, with the odds in favor of the Allies. This will probably be Europe's bloodiest summer.

EFFICIENCY OF U. S. SOLDIERS

CALIFORNIA AVIATOR HAS ACCOUNTED FOR SIX GERMAN AIR PLANES SINCE APRIL 14TH

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, June 6.—Sharp fighting between American patrols and the Germans in the Lorraine sector has been practically steady since Sunday, General Pershing reports. The Americans frequently are fighting with twice their number and seem to thrive on opposition.

Lieutenant Douglas Campbell of California downed six enemy airplanes between April 14th and June 1st. Lieutenant Eddie Rickert has downed three.

NEW FORTIFICATIONS BILL

WILL PROVIDE SIXTEEN COASTAL AERIAL STATIONS AND MOBILE COASTAL GUNS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, June 6.—Secretary Baker today asked that provision be made in the new Fortification Bill for sixteen coastal aerial defense stations to guard against submarine and airplane attacks. It is expected these will cost a million dollars each. Thirteen will be built on the Atlantic Coast. Sites for these have been selected and the stations can be built six weeks after the money is appropriated.

The Fortifications Bill will also provide for mobile coast defense by making appropriations for the transportation on railroad cars of huge coastal guns for use at any threatened coast point.

STEAMER KENILWORTH-CASTLE DAMAGED

STRUCK BY MINE OR TORPEDO, BUT KEPT AFLOAT BY BULKHEADS. RED CROSS NURSES DROWNED

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

AN ENGLISH PORT, June 6.—The steamer Kenilworth-Castle, with 332 passengers, arrived from South Africa today badly damaged. Her officers reported that she struck a heavy object at midnight and two explosions followed. It is not yet known whether she was torpedoed or whether she struck a mine. The inrush of water drowned several members of the crew and the overturning of a lifeboat drowned several Red Cross nurses. The ship's bulkheads prevented its sinking.

WAR PROFIT DRIVE ON

SENATE PASSES RESOLUTION WHICH MAY START A CONSCRIPTION OF WEALTH MOVEMENT

WASHINGTON, June 6.—The Senate has opened a drive on war profits by unanimously passing the Borah resolution asking Secretary McAdoo to furnish full information on profiteering, together with a list of all concerns which are making more than fifteen per cent profit. This will be used as a basis for a conscription of wealth movement which may even take every penny of excess war profit.

BEAUTY OF FRANCE

CORPORAL RALPH A. BENSON WRITES OF IT IN LETTER TO MRS. D. C. ELY

The Evening News is indebted to Mrs. D. C. Ely of 349 West Colorado street for the following interesting letter addressed to her by her grandson, Corporal Ralph A. Benson of Battery B, 65th Artillery, C. A. C., now in France:

American Y. M. C. A.
May 12th, 1918.

Dear Grandma:

This is Mother's Day and as I have no mother to write to I am going to take my spite out on you. I know you will be terribly mad, but you won't dare say a word against it 'cause I'm so far away, so there!

I am not with the battery now. I am on "detached service" with a sergeant and four privates of our own company, and I don't expect to return to it. If I make good in what I am doing now I am hoping for a recommendation for the officer's training school and I know that I will make good here and feel certain that I will make good in the officers' training school if I am given the chance.

I will be more than a month at what I am doing now, and I am using my spare time for study, and I'm really studying hard.

We are with the French and depend on the French officers for our recommendations. We have been on the move for the past week and are many miles from where I was when I last wrote. The rest of the battery is about 23 kilometers from the place where we were. I was at that place two days myself before we left for here.

It is a very pretty little town and the people are far better morally than at any other place I have been, and I have been over considerable territory since we arrived here. It is almost like a town in some other country, the contrast is so great. There is an old chateau and a large estate which is one of the oldest in France. There are wild deer and other game on the estate, which mostly consists of a large forest. I went out for a walk the first evening we were there and saw two fawn, and the next afternoon, which was Sunday, just a week ago today, I saw a buck and three does and they were surely beauties. It is really the prettiest place I ever saw. Large chestnut, pine, spruce and oak trees are everywhere and the ground is covered with ferns, violets, forget-me-nots, etc. I wish you could have taken a stroll through there with me. The country is different where we are now.

This is a rather mixed-up letter, but really it is hard to write when one is not allowed to say anything pertaining to what is going on here. Well, I'll have to discontinue, for even though you are the most wonderful and best grandmother a fellow ever had, even you might lose patience or something like that.

Give my regards to Aunt Ethel and the kiddies and tell them to write. I haven't had any mail for two weeks. Outside of that, all is well and everything running smooth. Address the mail same as before.

Lovingly

CORP. RALPH A. BENSON.

A CALL EXTENDED

The Evening News has been informed that on Wednesday of this week Rev. R. W. Mottern, pastor of the English Lutheran Church, corner Fifth and Maryland, received an urgent "call" to become pastor of the Capital City, Sacramento, English Lutheran Church. The communication states that it is the second time this congregation has expressed their desire to have Rev. Mottern as their pastor. It is said that this time the inducement carries with it a larger salary than he is now receiving. After due and serious consideration he has decided to remain in Glendale and devote himself with the splendid assistance of Mrs. Mottern and daughter, Elizabeth, to the more efficient building up of this congregation. Rev. Mottern says Glendale and its people are good enough for them.

USEFUL AND NEEDED PRODUCTS

Every person should now be engaged in some kind of useful employment, an employment that aids in the production of merchandise that is essential to the welfare of the masses. Keep up business, encourage it in every particular, but confine it to useful and needed products. Aid in growing fruits and vegetables or the manufacture of machinery, lumber, etc. Do something to help your country.

There is employment for everybody, but there must be a reclassification of the kinds of employment.

SUFFERING GLENDALE

CLOTHING AND SHOES NEEDED FOR MEN WOMEN AND CHILDREN HERE

Mrs. Young, Lieutenant of Mrs. E. S. McKee, who is the chairman of the Associated Charities Committee established by the Tuesday Afternoon Club and the P. T. A. Federation, complains of lack of supplies to meet local needs. When seen at headquarters of the committee on Broadway, which are open every Wednesday afternoon, she stated that they were all out of boys' waists and underclothing and out of shoes. The committee has plenty of women's waists but needs skirts, dresses, underwear, stockings, etc.

The trouble seems to be that there is lack of proper co-ordination between the work of the Salvage and Conservation Departments of the Red Cross and this committee. Mrs. Young appeared to think that when materials were given for the Red Cross the donors would not want them diverted to meet local needs. That is probably a mistake, as it has been the announced intention of the Salvage Department to provide first for the needy at home and then work up the surplus in the way in which it will best serve the needs of the Red Cross work. It has been suggested that persons making gifts of clothing would prefer not to see their discarded garments on other people and that the recipients might feel equally fastidious. Should that be the case it would seem possible to make some exchange with organizations elsewhere, to the satisfaction of all concerned.

Mrs. Young stated she had found it necessary to turn away applicants because she had not the wherewithal to meet their needs. She also stated that if any person who has garments to give away will notify Mrs. McKee by telephoning 1423-J, they will be called for.

It certainly seems a pity when so much is being done for the needy across the water, not to so organize affairs that the poor at home can be taken care of.

LUNCHEON FOR BRIDE TO BE

Mrs. W. L. Andrews of Pioneer drive entertained Wednesday with an exceedingly pretty four-course luncheon in honor of Miss Helen P. Norman, fiancée of Vernon Cowser, Jr., and house guest of Rev. and Mrs. Cowser. Roses, pink and white, were conspicuous factors in a charming scheme of decoration. The table was centered with a handsome crocheted basket tied with white tulle bows and filled with pink roses. Bride and groom kiewpies contributed to the festal effect and bride and groom cards marked the places. Besides the honoree, the guest list included Rev. and Mrs. Cowser, Mrs. W. McElroy, Mrs. J. W. Andree, Mrs. Joe Gerber, Mrs. Roy Kent, Mrs. J. Gray, Mrs. W. Wynn, Mrs. McPherson.

The marriage of Miss Norman and Mr. Cowser will take place June 17.

LEAVING FOR GEORGIA

The music pupils of Mrs. Eva Cunningham were entertained Wednesday at her home, 300 Orange street, with a little party, a feature of which was a quiz game on the theory of harmony, in which Shirley Hitchcock won the prize. Mrs. Cunningham and her two boys, Glenn and Ralph, will leave Sunday for Georgia, where they will spend the summer. Mrs. Cunningham is leaving her class with Adele Olney, who will act as instructor until her return in the fall.

MRS. BEAMON'S WORK

RED CROSS COMMITTEE HEADS EXPRESS APPRECIATION OF HER WORK

At the meeting of the department heads of the Glendale Chapter of the American Red Cross held at the home of the chairman, J. H. Braly, Tuesday evening, an especial tribute was paid to Mrs. A. M. Beamon, who was at the head of the comfort bag committee for many months and only gave up the work when a nervous breakdown induced by too close application to her duties in that capacity, sent her to a hospital. The hundreds of comfort bags that went from the department under Mrs. Beamon's management made many a homesick boy happier and hence a better soldier. Mrs. Beamon has many letters from soldier boys that testify to this fact. A great injustice was done Mrs. Beamon that a note of this recognition given her by the official board of the Chapter was inadvertently omitted from the report of the meeting. Every member of the Chapter and every patriotic citizen appreciates the splendid work that Mrs. Beamon has done for the Red Cross.

WAKE UP TO THE SITUATION

What will we do about it? What are we saying about it? What should we do about it? Definite news has come to us that the Germans are using organized efforts to destroy United States ships on the Atlantic coast. Such boldness, such insulting conduct must be resented by every liberty loving American citizen. Are we awake to what it means to have a foreign power come with their ships of war to within five miles of our country and sink our ships loaded with merchandise? Can we with such hostile acts going on be slow to show our indignation? Fellow men, wake up—be quick to support all legitimate war measures.

A year ago thousands of men said when war comes to the United States we will be ready to get out and fight. War is here now, and if you cannot fight by enlisting as a soldier—you can anyway render aid in many ways. Yes, wake up, men, and be ready to act your part in the great war drama.

WHY FISH ARE EXPENSIVE

Californians pay high prices for fish because they do not know how to buy. They persist in purchasing fish which are scarce in the market, they demand fish in winter during stormy weather when small catches are made, and they usually eat fish but one day a week.

There is a great lack of knowledge as to the comparative worth of fishes—a lack of knowledge that is perfectly natural in this country where we use so little fish food. What good housewife would go to the market and ask for meat, not knowing the difference between mutton, beef, or pork? Yet the fishes differ as much from each other as does pork from beef or mutton, and still the housewife asks for "fish," or else for the one or two kinds she knows. Now this ignorance is one of the greatest factors in making demand, for only a few kinds are known and those kinds are asked for until the supply is exhausted.

Fish are expensive because people often study prices rather than the merits of the fishes themselves and order the most expensive kinds. Thus they apply a rule that they have learned in their purchasing experience: i. e., that it pays to buy the best, and that price naturally represents quality. But with fish, prices depend upon supply and demand, not quality. When the demand is equal to, or exceeds the supply, the price is high. The ordinary housekeeper knows only two or three kinds of fish. She advertises them to other housekeepers and the demand becomes greater as the supply grows less and the price goes higher.

The demand is not always for the best fish by any manner or means. Why some fish are in great demand and others scarcely ever, or not at all, used to be one of the mysteries of the fisheries.

Probably there is no class of people that understands the true comparative worth of fishes so well as the fishermen (not dealers, but fishermen.) The fishermen usually prefer for their own use some of the fishes for which there is little market, even though they may have an abundance of the kinds that the public prefers.

If a fisherman caught many kinds of fish of course it would not cost more to catch the uncommon ones than it does the common ones. But this is not so. In general each fisherman catches only a certain class of fish or only one kind. He uses the tackle for that fish and goes to the place where it is found. The salmon fisherman catches only salmon, and the striped bass fisherman only striped bass. So if a certain fish is not very common, the fisherman who makes a specialty of catching it may take in a day only a tenth part of what some other fisherman is catching of some more abundant sort of fish. Thus he must receive ten times as much for his catch. There are times during the winter storms when fish of any kind are difficult to obtain and expensive. Then it is time to use preserved fish of which there is an increasing variety and supply. But instead, many people continue to buy fresh fish and of course, complain of high prices.

The one fish day a week is another factor in high prices. The fish do not know that they are expected to come in large schools on Thursday night. The fisherman has to live every day and the dealer's expenses go on through the week, so that if we eat fish only on Friday enough money has to be made on that day to carry the fisherman and dealer through the week. Hence, we should spread our fish eating to other days and leave Friday for those who eat fish on that day for religious reasons.

In order to enjoy fish at reasonable prices we must learn to buy those fish which are abundant, buy them at the proper time of year and not limit the eating of fish to one day a week—Committee on Zoological Investigations, California State Council of Defense.

WORK OR FIGHT IS ORDER

All men subject to draft hereafter must do a man's job or fight.

This rule, operative July 1, provides that all loafers and men not in useful occupations, listed in deferred draft classes, must engage in useful war work or be drafted into the fighting service.

The plan, however, is framed so that practically all of the men affected can be replaced by women.

The following classes are named as closed to registrants after July first:

A. Gamblers, bucket shop employees, fortune tellers, clairvoyants, palmists and the like.

B. Waiters in hotels and clubs.

C. Elevator operators in clubs, hotels, stores, department houses, office buildings and bath houses.

D. Ushers and attendants engaged in connection with games other than theatricals.

E. Domestic.

F. Clerks in mercantile establishments.

The plan is one of the most drastic ever undertaken and soon will be extended.

Men engaged as above, and idlers seeking relief because of late number drawings and because in deferred classes on the ground of dependency will not be exempted.

Draft boards will be empowered to force registrants to work.

In showing the necessity of the step, Gen. Crowder said:

"One of the unanswerable criticisms of the draft has been that it takes men from the farms and useful occupations and marches them past crowds of loafers and idlers. The remedy is simply—to couple the industrial basis with other grounds for exemption and to require that any man pleading exemption on any ground shall also show he is contributing effectively to the industrial welfare of the nation."

THEY WAR ON GLOOM, TOO

(By United Press)

WASHINGTON.—American Boys at the front are staging "Black-face" shows and Minstrel shindigs which dispel homesickness.

Unnumbered boxes of burnt cork, wigs and other minstrel equipment have been shipped to the A. E. F. by the Drama League of America.

Butcher—"What cut, madam?"

FAREWELL TO OVERLAND TOURISTS

Members of the Christian Church, of which Rev. Clifford Cole is pastor, held a little informal reception Wednesday evening at the church, following the prayer meeting, for Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Lawshe and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hutton, who left this (Thursday) morning for an overland automobile tour to Indiana. F. L. Thompson made an excellent speech and presented the prospective travelers with gifts which were not to be examined until they reached the desert. The refreshment was confined to fruit punch and about thirty-seven of their friends were present. The ladies are to act as chauffeurs and the men as mechanics during the trip. Mr. Hutton will leave the party at Kansas City to go down into Arkansas to investigate mineral and timber claims which he holds there, and Mrs. Hutton will go on alone from that point except for the escort of the Lawshes. They expect to visit Wabash, Muncie and Indianapolis. The Huttons plan to return September 1st, the Lawshes not until November 1st.

AS EACH MAGAZINE WOULD SAY IT

Snappy Stories—Slowly her sinuous arms crept seductively about his shoulders and around his neck, as Nedra, with a world of passion in her languorous eyes, held up her voluptuous red lips to be kissed.

Smart Set—With her lingerie draped in charming abandon and daring décolleté, Esme rose from her escritoire and walked toward him with utter sang froid, placed her arm about his shoulders and, casting convention to the wind, whispered, "Mon cher."

Saturday Evening Post—She flung her arms about his brawny shoulders and sighed softly, "Kiss me, dear."

Century—Placing her arms about him in a palpably compromising position, she enunciated, "Let us osculate."

Ladies' Home Journal—The sky was a glorious symphony in purples and oranges and pinks. Somewhere a nightingale was warbling sweetly. She gazed serenely into his hazel eyes. They were very happy.

WHAT'S YOUR OPINION

It's often said that you can prove anything from statistics. Some of the American papers have been making merry over one of the oldest incidents in history.

Old Version—Eve 8 and Adam 2—total 10.

Boston Journal—Eve 8 and Adam 8 also—equals 16.

Gloucester Advertiser—We think the above estimate entirely wrong. Eve 8 and Adam 82, certainly the total would be 90; but we might reason something like this: Eve 81 and Adam 82—equals 163.

Young American—If Eve 81 and Adam 812, would not the total be 893? But if it were necessary for Eve 281 and Adam 2812 then the total was 3093. If, however, Eve 814 Adam and Adam 8124 Eve, then the total would be 8938.

Antwerp American—Eve 8142 know how it tasted, and Adam 8124240'ty Eve's statement—total 8132382. It was, however, unnecessary for Adam 2814240'ty Eve's statement, because 14240'ty anyone's statement is sufficient; 281, therefore, was enough.

TO PROTECT ARMY STORES FROM INSECTS

Millions of dollars worth of food and clothing intended for use overseas and stored in the Government warehouse at the Bush Terminals, New York, will be protected from damage by insects through arrangements whereby the War Department will use the knowledge on stored-product insects in the possession of the Department of Agriculture. The stored supplies originated in all parts of the world and are likely to contain insects that will multiply and cause great damage in storage, particularly during the summer. To search out and treat infestations in the early stages may save millions of dollars. Dr. E. A. Back of the Bureau of Entomology has been placed in charge of the work, in co-operation with the War Department.

SKI YI BOYS TO FARMS

(By United Press)

WASHINGTON, June 6.—The American college student is going to help fight democracy's battle on the farm this summer.

Thousands of students of institutions from every corner of the country already have enrolled in the United States Public Service Reserve and colleges are steadily asking more enrollment cards.

Officials of the employment service hope the total enrollment will reach 20,000 before the summer vacation begins.

Many colleges are closing early and will reopen later than usual in the fall in order that the men who are engaged in the all-important work of raising food may not have to miss any of their class work.

The University of Pittsburgh sends this message:

"Our whole effort is toward this goal—every student in the government service for five months."

Wisconsin university is trying to enroll every available man, and California expects to enroll at least 2000.

Texas Agricultural college is expecting to send large groups of its students to Wisconsin and Kansas wheat farms.

HAPPENINGS IN STATE

EUREKA, Cal., June 6.—The draft and enlistments reduced the force of waiters at Eureka's largest hotel to two and with those two waiters business has been going on as usual for weeks. Then one of the final two enlisted. And the same day the other was arrested for violating the espionage act. The dining room was closed pending employment of more waiters.

OAKLAND, Cal., June 6.—St. Mary's College, destroyed a short time ago by fire, will open on time, in new buildings on the old site, if plans in process of formulation today can be carried out. An organization is being formed to raise funds to finance construction and in a few days the money-raising campaign will be under way.

SAN BERNARDINO, Cal., June 6.—Another annual affair gave way to war this week, when the Junior Class of the Y. M. C. A. abandoned the boys' summer camp in order to make it possible for members to help fill the ranks of farm laborers. Already a number of the boys have arranged to work on nearby farms. Just before the reopening of schools in the fall the boys will have a brief outing.

REDLANDS, Cal., June 6.—The Rev. Frank B. Matthews, prominent in local church circles, leaves in a few days to take up similar work in one of the army cantonments for the summer. He will be gone three months.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., June 6.—While instructing piano pupils may be conducive to patriotism, shipyard work is more patriotic. Superior Judge Willis told B. Earl Calkins today when he released him on two years' probation upon the latter's promise to quit teaching music and go to work in a shipyard. He was guilty of writing several small checks.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., June 6.—Just what comprises a "chic but not bold" bathing suit? That was the question the Los Angeles City Council and playground commission had to decide for Los Angeles today following submission of bids for 1500 bathing suits to be used at the new Exposition Park swimming pool. With each bid the bidder submitted a sample. From these the types of suits for the public tank will be selected. Here's where the real job comes in. Some favor the abbreviated, almost skin-tight form-revealing suit, holding the conservation of cloth is a highly patriotic duty. But their opponents declare propriety demands that the suits be such as to prevent crowding the swimming pool with those who come for sight seeing, not swimming.

TRUCKEE, Cal., June 6.—A trans-Sierra aeroplane flight and elaborate ceremonies here today marked the unveiling at Donner Lake of another monument to California pioneers. The monument occupied a site on the trail over which the famed Donner party blazed the way into California. The grand parlor of Native Sons which has been active in honoring the memory of the California Pioneers, unveiled the monument as a feature of their grand lodge convention now in session here.

MOVING ARMY OF LABORERS TO HARVEST WHEAT

Additional help to harvest the wheat in the central western States will be supplied by an army of workmen moving from Texas to North Dakota with the season of harvest. Definite plans for distribution of this labor have been made by the Department of Agriculture's farm help specialists co-operating with the Department of Labor and with county agents in these wheat-producing states. It is estimated that 80,000 men will be needed to harvest the wheat crop in Kansas, and that about 50,000 of this number will be furnished by the towns and cities of that state, while the remainder will go into Kansas from Oklahoma and Texas when the wheat harvest is finished in these states.

DEVELOPS A SUPERIOR ASPARAGUS

A new strain of asparagus that is larger, more uniform and more productive than the old varieties and in addition is highly disease resistant has been developed through ten years of work by J. B. Norton, a plant breeder in the Bureau of Plant Industry, who introduced, tested and hybridized asparagus from all parts of the world. Introduction of the new strain is expected eventually to stamp out the "rust," a destructive disease that swept over the country a few years ago. Commercial quantities of the new type recently sold in Washington, D. C. for more than double the price of other asparagus.

Personals

Mrs. M. E. Eddings, mother of G. C. Eddings of 1025 Fairview avenue, is very ill.

Mrs. John White Garver has just returned from Beverly Hills, where she spent several days as the guest of friends.

Mr. Read and daughters motored to Ontario Decoration Day, on their return bringing Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Strothers as their guests for several days.

Miss Elizabeth Porter of Santa Barbara, formerly of Glendale, was the week-end guest of her sister, Mrs. Seymour Thompson of Beverly Hills.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Tropico Presbyterian Church will hold its regular all-day meeting at the church Thursday, June 13th. Luncheon will be served at noon.

Mr. Read and daughters had as their dinner guests Sunday Rev. J. C. Garver, Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Ballantine and Baby Ballantine of Denver, Colorado. They are spending the summer here at the beach.

To A. S. Formoe, a Glendale letter carrier, and his wife, Fern Formoe of 1510 West Seventh street, was born Wednesday morning an eight-pound girl, who is the pride of her parents.

James McBryde of this city will act as attorney of W. I. Blanchard at the hearing before Judge Lowe on Saturday, and a deputy from the office of the District Attorney will conduct the prosecution.

St. Mark's Auxiliary will meet at the church Friday afternoon at 2:30, where a talk will be given by the president, Mrs. Porter, on the work of Bishop Restarick in the Sandwich Islands. All ladies interested are cordially invited.

Children's Day exercises at the Tropico Presbyterian Church will take place next Sunday and the program will be furnished in large part by the little pupils of the primary department, of which Mrs. S. E. Brown is superintendent. It will begin at 10:30 and will take the place of the usual morning service.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Brucker and sons, who have been residing at 419 North Maryland avenue, have leased their house to Mr. Hildebrand of the Manual Training Department of the High School, and have moved to Long Beach, which will be a more convenient place of residence for Mr. Brucker, who is employed in the San Pedro shipyards.

Walt. Le Noir Church has been appointed chairman of the W. S. S. Window Trimming Committee for Glendale and surrounding country. So if he or some of his helpers call on merchants with beautiful pictures donated by Uncle Sam, it will be considered a patriotic service to give them space in your show window. This in aid of the great drive for War Savings Stamps ending June 28th.

Mrs. D. J. Graham, corner of Third and Verdugo road, this city, will entertain the city W. C. T. U. Friday afternoon, June 7th. The program will be furnished by the Legislative Department and Mrs. Jennie Mottern will be in charge. As there is important business to be transacted, a full attendance is desired. As the Eagle Rock car passes the Graham residence, it will not be difficult to get there.

The little six-year-old son of Mrs. Hornsey, wife of Dr. Hornsey, who has been living at 1454 Oak street, is quite ill. Mrs. Hornsey is expecting to move to North Glendale. It will be remembered that Dr. Hornsey enlisted and went to France for medical service in the army. Some time ago his wife was notified that he was among the missing and she has heard nothing since concerning his whereabouts.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Harry Duffield of Lomita avenue was a guest at the last meeting of the Catholic Woman's Club of Los Angeles, at which a large service flag was impressively dedicated by Bishop Cantwell of the Los Angeles-Monterey Diocese. There were not less than 75 stars on the flag and two of them were gold. The stars were so arranged as to outline the initials of the club, which is doing excellent war work, Mrs. Duffield reports. There was a large attendance and it was a meeting of importance on many accounts.

Irving Oliver, business manager of the High School, has just had a card from his brother, Roger Oliver, announcing that he has reached Camp Dix, New Jersey. It is the same camp in which Irving Oliver was stationed in 1898 during the Spanish-American war. He never got into the fighting line because the war closed too soon, but with hundreds of others fought against the more deadly enemy. He comments on the difference between conditions then and now, when our soldiers are given immunity at the start from a foe which caused more deaths by far than Spanish bullets.

The all-day meeting which was to have been held Friday at the home of G. C. Eddings, 1025 Fairview avenue, by the North Glendale Neighborhood Prayer Meeting Class, has been postponed until Friday, June 14th, notice of which will be given later.

Miss Katherine Phillips, daughter of I. J. Phillips of West Fifth street, is to be one of the bridesmaids at the big military wedding in Los Angeles which is to be a Red Cross benefit with an admission charge of 50 cents. More than one thousand guests have been invited.

The final meeting of the Cerritos P.-T. A. takes place this (Thursday) afternoon. Miss Ethel Flood of the High School will be the speaker and will talk on "Vocational Training." Miss Mary Young will read and John Cotton will sing. Following the program, officers recently elected will be installed.

The last regular meeting of the Thursday Afternoon Club of this city will be held this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles Barker, 115 North Glendale avenue (Tropico district), this city. Inasmuch as this club expects to consolidate with the Tuesday Club of Glendale, there will probably be many important business matters to be considered.

Mrs. Gladys Lacey Romie, who has been the house guest of Mrs. Ella Richardson of Riverdale drive, left Wednesday for her home in Salinas, Cal. She went earlier than she otherwise would in order to play the wedding march for a bride belonging to a group of Stanford girls for whom she has performed the same service. On her way home she will visit Mrs. Richardson's daughter, Mrs. Mitchell.

Alvin E. Sanders, a Glendale boy who was made Corporal May 1st, at Kelly Field, Texas, where he is stationed, has just been made Sergeant. He is with the 869th Aerial Squadron and is now an instructor with 125 pupils under him. He has received the highest marks in all the tests he has taken. He is only twenty-two years of age and before he left here was a mechanic in the Reliable Garage.

DRAMATIC RECITAL

Mrs. Mildred Goetz (Mildred Mae), a very able and entertaining speaker, will give a dramatic recital under the auspices of the O. S. Health and Success Club at Hurt's Hall, 594 West Broadway, Glendale, Friday, June 7th, at 8 p. m. Mrs. Goetz will

RED CROSS BENEFITS

Ladies who were concerned in the production of the Cranford Musicales report that from the two performances the Music Section of the Tuesday Afternoon Club cleared for the benefit of the Red Cross about $210. For such a contribution to come from a single department of the Club is a splendid showing.

Mrs. Charles Turck reports that initial arrangements are being made for a big garden fete some time in July in her beautiful grounds. It will be the biggest festival attempted yet, and if the plans now talked of are carried out it will yield a big sum for the Red Cross. Mrs. Turck is the curator of the Art and Travel Section of the Tuesday Club.

Think what the spectacle of cheerful giving means to the enemy.

AMERICAN TEA

Next Wednesday afternoon, June 12th, in the Jewel City Cafe, the sixth in the series of patriotic teas under the auspices of the British Ambulance Society will be given. These little entertainments are becoming exceedingly popular on account of their excellence and are attracting much attention in social and patriotic circles in Glendale and Los Angeles. The American Tea promises to be well up to the standard of its predecessors, if not to outshine them, and a very interesting affair is planned. One of the special features will be the presentation of handsome British flag, the Union Jack, to the Ambulance Society by children of the Intermediate school, who have been making it under the supervision of Miss Clara Midcalf, and they will themselves bring it to the Tea on Wednesday. Little Robert Lehmann dressed as Uncle Sam will make the presentation and will also sing the new song written by Julius Kranz, "Just Leave It to Your Uncle Sam." Other very delightful numbers on the program include a group of songs by the "Treble Clef" of the Tuesday Afternoon Club under the direction of Mrs. Calvin Whiting, and patriotic dances by the well-known young artist, Mia Marvin, who charmed the huge audience at Shrine Auditorium on Empire Day and who has appeared in Glendale before.

The hostesses for the tea are Mrs. A. W. Beach and Mrs. R. W. Meeker, assisted by Mrs. C. O. Pulliam and members of the tea committee.

Mrs. Menzo Williams and Mrs. J. C. Sherer, who were to have been hostesses, are unable to do so on account of illness and unforeseen circumstances.

The full-program will be published later and it is hoped the Glendale public and friends of the war workers in general will help to make the American Tea a banner one in the way of attendance. Only 15 cents is charged and the proceeds go to the Wool Fund. Bring your knitting, ladies and gentlemen!

LITERARY SECTION

The regular meeting of the Literary Section of the Tuesday Afternoon Club was held at the home of Mrs. H. E. Bartlett on Tuesday, when a most interesting program was presented. The first subject was "The Second Year of the War," a most stirring, patriotic work, by Frederick Palmer. This book was ably reviewed by Mrs. Harry Lynch. It described the army maneuvers under Field Marshal Haig, the brilliant work of General Joffre, the idol of the enthusiastic French people, the splendid, soldierly bearing of the Australians and Canadians when under fire, and the usefulness of the British tank.

"Tramp Across the Continent," a work from the pen of Chas. F. Lummis, was sketched by Mrs. L. H. Butterfield. Mr. Lummis left Cincinnati in October and walked to Los Angeles, a distance of 3507 miles, in 143 days. He kept as far as possible from the gates of civilization and encountered many serious difficulties, all of which he overcame by his indomitable will and courage. The book is full of descriptive charm and is worth careful perusal.

At the conclusion of these talks a short business meeting was held, at which Mrs. Bartlett was re-elected curator for the section for another year and a committee composed of Mrs. Pack, Mrs. Duffield and Mrs. Pearce was appointed to assist Mrs. Bartlett in arranging a program.

The section voted unanimously to hold a picnic at Eagle Rock Park June 18th as a closing feature to a year of faithful work. A committee to arrange for transportation was appointed and the following ladies were named: Mrs. Lynch, Mrs. Duffield and Mrs. Rowe. The luncheon committee comprises Mrs. Pack, Mrs. Pearce and Mrs. Baker.

IN HONOR OF SENIORS

As a conservation and patriotic measure the annual banquet and the annual dance which have always been given for the Seniors of Union High by the Juniors and the Alumni, are to be consolidated in one function, which will take place Friday evening at the Elks' Club House as a Red Cross benefit. The general public is invited, but the Seniors will be guests of honor.

Miss Ruth Lathrop, president of the Junior Class, and Miss Dorothy Hobbs, president of the Alumni, will act as hostesses, assisted by other members of their organizations. As most of the male members of the Alumni are with the colors, this action on the part of members who are left seems entirely fitting.

Dancing will take place in the lodge hall on the main floor of the club house and a musical and literary entertainment will be given in the banquet hall below by High School students and members of the Alumni. A charge of 50 cents will be made for the tickets. The national colors will feature the floral decorations.

INHERITANCE

"Betty," said a mother to her little 4-year-old daughter, "what is the reason you and your little brother, Willie, can't get along without quarreling?"

"I don't know," was the reply, "unless it is because I take after you and Willie takes after papa."—Ex.

***Figure was looking down the track toward the train that—

***Was departing—it was the little mother whose heart was—
***Breaking waving a last goodbye to her boy—her only boy—
***Who was going away to be a soldier—who was going to war—
***For some time after the crowd had moved from the platform—

***Some crying others trying to comfort the little—
***Mother lingered near the tracks just like she shot that—
***Maybe her boy hadn't gone after all and that maybe it—
***Was all only a cruel dream—now and then she would pat—

***Her eyes with the little handful of something white—there—
***Was nobody there to comfort her aching, bleeding heart—
***Pretty soon she started toward the car to go back to the—
***Lonely house that used to be so bright and cheerful when—

***He was there but the light would all be gone now from—
***That place and as she passed close to me I could see a—***Little of what it meant to her to give her boy to their—
***Country—I would have given the suit off my back right—

***Then to have been able to take that little mother in my—
***Arms and tell her to cry it out on my shoulder so that—
***She would feel better and to have patted her cheek gently—
***And stroked those gray hairs over so kindly just like I—

***Used to do my own mother when she was here—but I didn't—
***And she got on the car still pressing the little white—
***Thing now and then to her eyes and the last thing I—
***Hear was the conductor ringing up her fare—

***Right then and there I said to myself for the hundredth—
***Time—a Kaiser who will break the hearts of little mothers—
***Like that MUST be sent to the place that is yawning open—
***For him and his kind—don't you think so—

***Goodbye 'till next time—Hen***

LA CANADA

It is hoped that the public enjoyed Harold Lockwood in the "Hidden Spring," also the Fox comedy. Our next picture, "Up the Road with Sally," to be shown June 21st, is worthy of comment. Parts of this picture being filmed at La Canada, should make this picture doubly interesting to residents of this valley. The committee were very much pleased at the large attendance of "Jack and the Beanstalk," and feel that their efforts are not in vain, as three dollars were handed to Mrs. Penfield for Red Cross funds. It is hoped that these programs will continue in their popularity. Those in charge are putting forth every effort to make this undertaking a success by furnishing the best pictures possible. Bear in mind the great war picture, "Over There," to be shown definitely July 5th. This film is already booked for that date. As soon as possible lists will be published through these columns of definite and prospective pictures to be shown here. In the meantime watch the bulletin boards. There are six, placed at various points in the valley. These will keep you well informed and, lastly, do not fail to buy a season ticket, good for ten shows.

Dr. Scott, who has been at the Glendale Sanitarium, is better. There will be the usual church service Sunday morning and the pastor expects to be able to preach.

Two ladies of the Valley had the recent privilege of being present at the morning opening exercises of a department store in Los Angeles. The singing of the "Star-Spangled Banner" by all the employees standing at attention was very beautiful and affecting. It can not help but give a different tone to the day's work and it gives one pause to think. The singing is led by instruments played by the store employees. Go get a thrill yourself. It's worth it.

Dr. Salisbury has purchased a new one-ton Ford truck for Mr. Griffin's use on his ranch.

Red Cross enjoyed the beautiful weather of Tuesday for a working day. Mrs. John Coburn appeared as a worker for the first time. Miss Bissell of Pasadena talked for a few minutes in her official capacity. The monthly reports were given. That of the secretary showed a small increase in membership. The treasurer noted expenditures and receipts, naming the balance in our favor. The work-room reports 213 pieces delivered to Pasadena of which 110 were 8x12 pads, 95 were 12x24 pads, 1 pneumonia jacket was in the list. Knitting reported as follows: 9 jackets or sweaters, 7 mufflers, 30 helmets, 12 pairs of socks, 1 pair wristlets. The recipients at San Pedro camp have many flattering, appreciative things to say of the beautiful work they take such pride in wearing.

The election of officers of La Canada Thursday Club occurs at the next meeting.

Sergeant Edwin Cooper will be in La Canada for the week end.

Mrs. Robt. Waterman has a most enjoyable visit with her brother, W. R. King, of Oakland, who stopped to see her on his way home from Cleveland. Mr. King is an officer of the B. of L. E. This is Mr. King's first visit to the valley since he was a small boy. Of course he sees many changes and was so delighted that he just naturally hated to tear himself away. He says he will be back later this summer and bring Mrs. King with him.

H. L. Cooper of Craig street is enjoying a great pleasure. His brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Cooper, from Weston, Mass., arrived last Wednesday. They came here to make their future home.

Mrs. Nickolson has been kept a prisoner in bed for a few days.

Marion Lea is a clerk in a San Pedro shipyard. He buys supplies and has charge of the stock room. He makes good wages. On Thursday last week he gathered in $10 for the day's work. Holidays pay extra.

Lawrence Gill, who worked for Mr. Huntington for some time, is working at the shipyard.

Mr. and Mrs. Swartzout and daughter moved to their new home on Fairview avenue last week. They occupy the garage until their house is built, which Mr. Swartzout hopes to begin soon. Mr. Swartzout is in the furniture business. The daughter is a bookkeeper for a firm in Pasadena.

The U. S. Food Administration for California, through Elizabeth M. Mumford, Woman Director for Los Angeles Food Administration, asks as a voluntary act that the meat ration per person for one week be limited to two pounds, including poultry, the meat weight to be made before the trimming is done. Instruction has also been received for the benefit of all concerning the use of wheat, from the N. Y. College of Agriculture at Cornell.

Thirty million bushels of potatoes will be wasted if not used immediately. It is up to the people of the west coast as well as other parts of the United States to use them. Of course you will see the reason at once—more wheat will be released for urgent need abroad, as less bread will be eaten. So the patriotic thing to do is to eat potatoes in every form the ingenuity of the good cook can devise and health will permit.

There is a Better Babies' Convention to be held soon in Pasadena. Registrations are taking place. Eight are already entered from La Canada. The Government at Washington wishes to compile statistics now and at the close of the war about the babies.

La Canada people who were at Exposition Park, Los Angeles, Decoration Day, saw at least one of our boys there. Leo Coburn, who is in the artillery service, rode on one of the carriages. His leg is not yet entirely well.

Mr. Waterman was at Puente when the soldier boys reached there on their long hike from San Diego. He saw them break camp and was much enthused by their soldierly aspect. A dance was on for the evening of their stay. Puente not being long on girls for such a manly gathering, the country roundabout was drawn upon for a further supply. That must have been a good dance.

J. P. Anderson's time of jury service expires this week. Max Green will be glad to welcome him back.

Joe Leoni fell from his motorcycle and sustained a severe sprain of the wrist.

J. M. Huntington and wife spent Sunday at Redondo Beach. Chris Skow and wife and George Skow with his sister made up the party. They saw one big haul made. A Jewish weighing 400 pounds was pulled in. Good to eat, a Jewish is, and sold at three cents a pound.

There seems to be an epidemic among little children, something like a cold, attended with fever, which is quite pronounced. Barbara Green and David Metcalf were sufferers last week. This week Margaret and Baby John Metzger are down with it.

The graduating class of La Canada Grammar school cordially invite their friends to attend the commencement exercises Friday evening, June 14, at eight o'clock, in the school auditorium.

FREEDA G. POTTS,
PEARL E. SLUTMAN.

Miss Lulu Green's school closed Friday of last week. Miss Green has been teaching at Saugus.

Kathryn Green is attending Potts' Business College in Pasadena.

Miss Dorothy Lester is at Balboa for the summer as guest of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Horace P. Gates. Balboa was a former home of the Lesters.

Rev. Eaton of Los Angeles preached for Dr. Scott on last Sabbath. At the close of the sermon Dr. Scott's resignation was made. His wishes were made known to the congregation by Mrs. Scott. Dr. Scott has been ill at the Glendale Sanitarium, but recovered sufficiently to return on Friday.

Roma Penfield has a new dog. He is one of Mrs. Miller's full-blooded French poodles.

Junior Red Cross picked 36 boxes of onions from Mr. Brown's gift of two acres and realized $6.50 from the sale. They also made $6.00 by the disposal of their salvage last week.

Mrs. Penfield gave 5-minute talks on Food Conservation to each school on Tuesday. These talks will be given next week also.

L. C. Riggs is to have one or two artificial lakes on his Flintridge property.

Mrs. Stultz had a happy letter from Santa Catalina from Mrs. Phillips. Everything is being made ready for summer—tents going up, streets furnished up, etc. Boos Brothers, of Los Angeles, are establishing a fine cafeteria. The Metropole will be ready in time for the opening of the season on June 9.

Dr. Scott, pastor of La Canada Church, read his resignation at the morning service last Sabbath, June 2, as follows:

To La Canada Church and Congregation, Dear Friends:
Five years have passed since I received your communication inviting me to the La Canada pastorate. The invitation seemed to carry with it the authority of the great Head of the Church.

Immediately I conferred not with flesh and blood. Matured plans for a New England home were waived, that the question of personal comfort might yield to the conviction of personal duty.

The tentative terms of the call, specifying a three months' service with a settlement in view, could not weaken my conviction that a work awaited me upon the Pacific coast. The sequel has justified the decision. The five years have been characterized by your hearty co-operation with my efforts in the interest of the Kingdom of Peace and Good Will.

Working forces have been enlarged by an awakened interest among your young people, many of whom have moved on to other spheres of usefulness. Covenant vows with God have been renewed. The house of worship has been renovated. The parsonage has been made more convenient and comfortable.

An ardent wish has been cherished that a beautiful house of worship might be dedicated here to Him Who created this beautiful valley; but the great war has seemed to make effort in this direction untimely. This cherished undertaking must be left to other hands. The time has arrived for me to withdraw. The five full years of service, which I craved when I came to California, have been measured out to me. I hereby tender my resignation, to take effect July thirty-first. This date is set in deference to the stipulation in your letter of invitation that a notice of two months should be given.

My withdrawal will not diminish my interest in the spiritual welfare of the people of La Canada. My declining years will be freighted with blessed reminiscences of my La Canada pastorate. These enriching memories will be numbered among my valuable spiritual assets, as I review my ministry of forty-five years.

Large opportunities loom up in the horizon of this enticing region. The atmosphere is vibrant with a challenge to undertake large enterprises in the interest of the common weal, that homeseekers may find here an attractive commonwealth.

I shall rejoice in all your prosperity. I still crave for you all the blessings, spiritual as well as material, that are within the reach of those who have learned to "lift up their eyes unto the hills from whence cometh their help,—their help cometh from the Lord, who made heaven and earth."

Sincerely your friend,
DARIUS B. SCOTT.
